MANY DWELLING AND FLAT HOUSES CHANGE HANDS-FURTHER DETAILS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC OR-PHAN ASYLUM TRANS-

ACTION.

Some further details about the sale of the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum property in Fifth-ave., contracts for which will probably be signed to-day, were made public yesterday. The selling price to the syndicate is understood to be $2,100,000 for the block, exclusive of the Madison-ave. front, which comprises a plot 75x200.10, and has been sold to Archbishop Corrigan for diocesan purposes. Re-strictions in the contract will relate to the height of buildings to be put on Fifty-first-st., opposite the Cathedral. In addition to the men mentioned yesterday in this column as being members of the syndicate, others are George R. Sheldon, John A. McCall, William F. Havemeyer and William A. Butler, jr. It is thought that the resale of all or mo of the property will not be long delayed. A brief option is said to have been given on the Fifty-sec ond-st. corner, and the Union Club has frequently been mentioned as a possible buyer of the Fifty first-st. corner. A syndicate represented by a wel known architect is figuring on the Fifty-second-st lots, and a firm of builders has indicated a desire for the Fifty-first-st. lots to improve with a row of high class dwelling houses. In addition to the syndicate which bought the property there were four others in the field for it, represented, re-spectively, by F. De R. Wissman, W. B. Taylor & Sons, John N. Golding and Bryan L. Kennelly. Albert Booth Cohn reports that he has sold fo Felt & Livingston, owners of the Lucille apart-ment house, the southeast corner of One-hundredand-fourteenth-st. and St. Nicholas-ave. to ex

GETS HER DOWER RIGHTS.

Henry J. Sharman's Widow Sueceeds in Proving Her Claim. Ex-Judge Nathaniel H. Clement, referee in the suit of Mary Sharman, against the estate of Henry J. Sharman, deceased, has filed his report. Sharman was an Englishman and a painter by trade. After Sharman's estate had passed into the hands of an administrator, a woman, claiming to be his lawful wife, came from England and in an action succeeded in making good her claim. Referee Clement holds that she is entitled to dower in all the real estate left by Sharman, including that which he had sold as an unmarried man. The purchasers of real estate sold by Sharman will have to make good Mrs. Sharman's dower.
